

Add-On Graduate Certificates

Students have the option to complete an add-on certificate while pursuing their graduate degree. Certificate courses may be used dually toward your elective credits in the HEAM program. Students should apply for an add-on certificate prior to the completion of six-semester hours towards the certificate requirements.

Apply online through the Graduate Admissions Office by following these step-by-step instructions.

CERTIFICATE OPTIONS:

Each certificate has its own admission criteria, required courses, and credit hours. A full list of add-on certificate options, details, and points of contact are found in the Graduate Catalog.

Here are some relevant certificate options that may pair well with the HEAM degree:

- Africana Studies Graduate Certificate
- Cultural Studies in Education Graduate Certificate
- Disasters, Displacement, and Human Rights Graduate Certificate
- Evaluation, Statistics, and Measurement Graduate Certificate
- Grief, Loss, and Trauma Graduate Certificate
- Health Policy Graduate Certificate
- Instructional Leadership Graduate Certificate
- International Children, Youth, and Families Graduate Certificate
- Legal Studies Graduate Certificate
- Linguistics Graduate Certificate
- Online Teaching and Learning Graduate Certificate
- Qualitative Research Methods in Education Graduate Certificate
- Social Theory Graduate Certificate
- Urban Education Graduate Certificate
- Women, Gender, and Sexuality Graduate Certificate
- Youth Informatics Graduate Certificate

We encourage you to reach out to the certificate's home department for specific questions. Please contact your program advisor for general questions about pursuing a certificate.